Higgs, (nominated from the floor); first vice president, Mrs. E. W. Brumpton, Mrs. Leroy Cox, and Mrs. Glenn Johnson (from the floor); second vice president, Miss Wylie; treasurer, Mrs. J. Mrs. C. H. Meers, local chairman of Better Homes Week to be observed next week, announced that next Tuesday from 8 until 4, Mr. Willowbrand, agricultural instructor at Narbonne would offer suggestions to, and advise all who care to consult him.

Miss Griffin gave a short talk on the promotion system, and distributed schedules of the approved basic courses of Los Angeles High Schools for 1927-28, more of which are available for those who desire them.

Will Discuss Dam Disaster Sunday
The St. Francis Dam disaster will be discussed at the Community Church in the sermon prelude next Sunday evening. Could this terrible disaster have been avoided? Can the responsibility be placed? If the City of Los Angeles is responsible what can she do to help make matters right? What are some of the lessons to be learned from the disaster?

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. Louis Tinning, will speak from Acts 5:42, and his sermon subject will be "A Witnessing Church." Has the church cultivated its usefulness, or does it still have a place in the life and work of mankind? What is the real work of the church today? At the evening service the message will be based on Romans 7:24, and the sermon subject will be "Personal Redemption." Can man save himself, or is he still in need of the personal intervention of a Divine Saviour? Is man still inherently sinful, or has he so progressed and developed, as some would have us believe, that he is no longer in need of a Saviour from sin?

Masonic Hall to Be Lowered Some
Masonic Hall on Narbonne avenue, the lower part of which until recently was occupied as a feed store, will be lowered to the street level. Following that, and other repairs, the feed store will be restocked and opened under the management of Fred Stock.

Russian Singer to Appear Here
Mme. Karinskaya Will Sing at Church on April 25th

A rare privilege awaits the people of Lomita on Wednesday evening, April 25, when Madame Karinskaya, the great Russian prima donna, will sing at the Community Church. Madame Karinskaya sang before the late Czar of Russia and his family many times. She also sang before the royal families of China, Japan and Persia. From her girlhood her heart has been with the simple people of her own land and she has sung principally for them. Her greatest talent was in singing the simple songs of the peasants. She was the first Russian to introduce on the professional stage the simple folk songs of the peasantry. She won the hearts of high and low alike through the tender lures of her voice and the fascinating charm of her personality. Since her conversion to Christianity she has given up professional singing and is devoting her entire life to the furtherance of Christian evangelism only.

Pastor William Fetter, founder and general director of the Russian Missionary Society, has just arrived from Europe, and is speaking in the principal cities of California. He is to make an address at the Community church on Wednesday evening. He is the founder of a large tabernacle in Petrograd with a seating capacity of 2000. He was arrested and ordered exiled to Siberia by the late Czar, but this command was later changed so that he was able to enter other countries.

He has spoken in several of the large churches of Los Angeles, and will speak in the Lomita Community Church on Wednesday evening April 25th. The story of his ministry and imprisonment, as well as his addresses on the Russian revolution and present-day religious work are of thrilling interest. The general public is cordially invited to hear these noted Russians. No admission will be charged but a silver offering will be received.

Mrs. Robertson Is Claimed by Death
Mrs. Mary E., 36, wife of Bandy E. Robertson of 2339 Miller street, died at her home last Thursday night, April 12, after an illness of seven years. Mrs. Robertson had been bedfast for three years.

Mrs. Robertson was born in Missouri. The family moved here from Gardena last September. She was a member of Sahara Lodge, No. 279, Rebekahs of Coachella, and a member of the Presbyterian church in the southern town.

Beside her husband and two daughters, Mildred 11, and Lorena 10, Mrs. Robertson was survived by her father, Mr. Ellis of Porterville; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Siewczyk of Porterville and Mrs. Margaret Beedy of Buhl, Idaho; and two brothers, George Ellis of Porterville and Edward Ellis of Burbank.

Rev. Louis Tinning of the Community Presbyterian church conducted services Saturday afternoon at the Whittington chapel at Gardena. Interment was made in Roosevelt Memorial Park, where members of Trio Rebekah Lodge held services. The pall bearers were members of Triple City Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Robertson is a member.

Lomitans Joined Legion Women
Included in a class of nearly 30 who were initiated into the American Legion Auxiliary at Torrance, Tuesday evening were Mrs. Harold Calkins, Mrs. Julius Linderman, Mrs. William Sager, Mrs. Gertrude Boyle, Mrs. Roy Sidebotham, Mrs. Edna K. Lynne and Miss Edith S. Smith.

The initiatory work was exemplified by the Redondo Beach team in a very impressive manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Merrill who sold their property on Redondo boulevard recently, are moving to Gardena.

Miss Woods Weds Mr. Wood Sunday

Miss Eunice Woods and Raymond Wood were married Sunday, April 15, at high noon by Rev. J. J. Sheehy of Torrance. The wedding was solemnized in the beautifully decorated home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woods of 1335 Pennsylvania avenue.

The bride, attired in white bridal satin, with veil and orange blossoms, carried sweet peas and roses. She was attended by Miss Eunice Babbitt of Flagstaff, Arizona, as maid of honor. Miss Babbitt wore pink crepe and carried sweet peas. The bridesmaid Miss Emma Edkman, was attired in apricot organdy and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Little Bernice Eddy was the dainty little flower girl, and small Marshall Pitt of Long Beach was ring bearer.

The room was attended by his uncle, Judge Wood of Los Angeles.

Miss Minnie Ekman of Harbor City rendered the wedding march.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wood, the groom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Teal King, Floyd Boeler of Hollywood; Mrs. George Babbitt, the bride's godmother, of Flagstaff, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt of Long Beach; Mrs. Ekman of Harbor City; Mrs. Alice Cornelius; Mr. and Mrs. Teavi Ellison, Reuben Cornelius, of Santa Monica; Miss Elvira Burwash, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Erickson and daughter Emma, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. Daisy D. Eckman, Mrs. Ed Spence and Milton Bailey.

Following a brief honeymoon trip up the coast, the young couple are at home in Hollywood where Mr. Wood is a cameraman at the Laski studios. Mrs. Wood, a graduate of Lomita high school, '25, is an accomplished cellist and teacher.
